IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION
SUIT NO.2606 OF 1994

SMT. ASHA YOGESH DAWDA ..... PLAINTIFF.

VS.

BAJAJ AUTO LTD. ..... DEFENDANTS.

MR. M.J.DEVANI FOR THE PLAINTIFF.
NONE FOR THE DEFENDANTS.

Coram : S.K.Shah, J.
Date : October 11, 2006.

P.C.

1. The Suit is undefended as against the defendant. The Suit is for declaration that the signature appearing on the transfer form in respect of the transfer of 100 bonus shares, is forged signature of the Plaintiff and that the Plaintiffs are the owners of the said bonus shares and for restraining the defendants, Company from transferring the said 100 bonus shares as per their distinctive numbers, and creating any third party right, title or interest therein.

2. The allegations made in the plaint have gone unchallenged. Those allegations are supported by the list of documents filed today. As such the Suit needs to be decreed under Order VIII Rule 10 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Hence, the Order :-

ORDER

(1) The Suit is hereby decreed in terms of prayer clause (a), (b) , (c), (f) and (h).

(2) Decree be drawn up accordingly.

(c) Certified Copy expedited.

.....

[S.K.Shah , J.]